GO BETWEEN LOOMS UP BIG.

AFTER YESTERDAY'S VICTORY HE MAY BE THE BROOKLYN FAVORITE.

Accountant Will Start-Ella O'Neill Wins the Bouquet Stakes-Rialto Is Promising-Good Day for Public.

New York, May 15 .- Although today's card at Belmont Park was the worst of the meeting, it proved to be a lucky one for the public, as five favorites won and all except T. S. Martin were at od odds. The program was a poor one for a track of Belmont Park's pretensions, as it appealed largely to cheap horses and three of the races were run over the straight course, which affords a poor view. especially when a heavy mist hangs over the track as was the case today.

The steeplechase, always a great feature and drawing card at this track, had only three starters, and one of these—T. S. Martin—so far outclassed the other two as to rob the race of interest so far as any contention was concerned, though it was extremely gratifying to see this good steeplechaser back after a winter's rest in such good condi tion. He is still the rapid going horse that won the Harbor Hill last fall, his only fault being that he sometimes chances his fences and this might prove fatal in a race where the contention is keen.

In the handicap at one mile and an eighth Go etween and Tokalon had their trials for the Brooklyn Handicap and in a fast run race both qualified handsomely. Go Between carried 126, qualified handsomely. Go Between carried 126, pounds, while Tokalon had up 121. They were each backed by their owners, with the former always After Alpermarchen had made the pace the choice. into the stretch he quit and Tokalon took up the She was almost immediately challenged by Go Between. Mountain had the latter under a sharp drive to get to the front, but he was going away at the finish. Tokalon hung on well and ran a good game race, but was no match for the Meddler at the end. It seems now that Go Between will be the favorite for the Brooklyn. Mountain will have the mount.

Seymour Beutler made his first appearance in the east in the second race. He has the reputation of being the best youngster in the Schreiber barn and he was heavily backed by many shrewd bettors, never looked like beating Sepoy, the favorite, which led all the way to win in an impressive manner. Seymour Beutler is a good looking colt. He may race better later on, though there was no apparent excuse for him today. Rialto, the third horse, is smart looking youngster and is almost sure to be heard from in a big way before the season is much

Ella O'Neill, the favorite won the Bouquet Stakes the only fixture on the card, but she had to be hustled all the way to beat Laughing Eyes, which

Some confusion was caused after the closing race by the men at the number board displaying the number of Ocean Spray as the third horse, when Cloisteress was a safe third. The trouble arose from misreading of the numbers—Cloisteress being No. 13, while Ocean Spray was No. 3. A correction was made before the O.K. was given.

Knapp will ride Accountant in the Brooklyn Handicap. It was not known until today that Accountant would start. Trainer Coyne arrived to-day with Arcite and Sir Huon. Arcite will start in the Brooklyn. Jack Baker also got in with Cottontown. Royal Onyx, which finished third in the opening race, was claimed by T. G. Molinelli for Jockeys Radtke and Lowe were suspended for the remainder of the meeting by starter Cassidy.

The card for tomorrow is replete with interesting features and with such fivers as Prince Hamburg, Saracinesca, Horace E.; Wave Crest, King James, Harcourt; Dinna Ken, Aletheuo, Ampedo; Dr. Keith, Sanctus, Fallaheen; Roseben, Brookdale Nymph, Red River; Philander, Bright Boy and Senator Clay among those likely to start a great concourse, will probably view the racing.

STREETT'S TWO GOOD YOUNGSTERS.

Cincinnati, O., May 15 .- There are two mighty promising two-year-olds in the string of S. Streett at Latonia. They are Azagad, a chestnut colt by Ornus-Mrs. Sneed, by Top Gallant and Epichestnut colt by Mont d'Or-Brief. Azagad has a fine turn of speed, but he is a bit headstrong.

DALY'S CONTRACT IS VALID.

New York, May 15 .- The trouble over the Burns boys, Guy and Willie, seems to have been finally settled. A Brooklyn judge today gave them to the custody of the mother and the three-year contract W. C. Daly holds on them was declared

MUSGRAVE'S IMPROVED RIDING.

Thomas Griffin's lad Musgrave is giving evidence of improvement in every race. The youngster who could not finish well at Jamaica is all energy at Belmont Park. Moreover, he is quick at the post and daring on turns.

DEATH OF BARNEY FEENEY.

Barney Feeney, who at one time raced a string of horses and was a regular race-goer for many years, died at his home at 136 East 125th street, York City, on Sunday afternoon. He was forty-two years of age,

COMPLAINT AGAINST AUBUCHON. LOOK OUT FOR GARNISH AS A RINGER.

Buxton Charges That He Caused the Defeat of Ocean Shore by Striking That Horse.

Oakland, Cal., May 15 .- An attractive card pro duced excellent racing at the local track today. The results were also satisfactory from a speculative standpoint. The weather was first class, the track fast and the usual large attendance was in evidence, but a falling off in the number of layers drawing for position was noticeable. Favorites and well-backed second choices captured four races. They were Hilo de Oro, Raleigh, George P. McNear and Misty's Pride. The last-named pair of pronounced second favorites were accorded heavy sup-

In the closing race won by Native Son in fast time, Buxton, the jockey on Ocean Shore, that Aubuchon, who was piloting Fireball, had repeatedly struck his horse across the face to prevent his passing the favorite on the last turn, and that these tactics beat Ocean Shore. The stewards are investigating and Aubuchon, who is a newcomer and a valuable acquisition to the local jockey contingent, will probably be punished severely.

William Murray has been engaged to start at Harry Stover's coming meeting at Butte, Mont.

It is reported that the stewards of the California Jockey Club will announce tomorrow the result of their investigation into the recent turf scandal in which jockeys H. Smith and J. Hunter and sev eral bookmakers and their go-betweens are involved. Jockey Appleby is still in a precarious condition. Kelly will recover eventually. Roy Offutt has asked for a rehearing, which will be granted.

A promising program is offered for tomorrow after noon and with such speedy horses as Rey Hindoo, Be Thankful, Kismet Jr.; Frank Flittner, Michael Mulvaney, Adirondack; Pickaway, The Skipper, Elevation; Benvolio, Nabonassar, Adonis; Gemmell Combury, Silver Stocking; Fred Bent, Eduardo and Mina Gibson showing in the entry lists, a big crowd will probably be in evidence at the course

T. S. MARTIN FOR WHITNEY MEMORIAL

Good and Plenty Is All Right-Bedouin in Training for the Cosmopolitan.

New York, May 15 .- Thomas Hitchcock, Jr. said at Belmont Park today that Good and Plenty had not been injured in the steeplechase on Saturday. The big horse came out of his race in fine condition and he was romping with his grooms an hour after cooling out. Mr. Hitchcock attributes his defeat to the bog. He does not believe that Coligny could have got anywhere near him if Good and Plenty had missed the bog. Good and Plenty's preparation for the Whitney Memorial Steeplechase, which is to be run May 30, will contipue as though he had not met defeat, and Mr. Hitchcock believes he will win.

Paul Rainey is of a different mind. He believes

T. S. Martin, which won the steeplechase today, will take Good and Plenty into camp no matter how good the big gelding may be. T. S. Martin was good the big gelding may be. the winner of last season's Harbor Hill and trainer Garth considers him the best fencer in the Rainey barn, although no person who follows steeplechasing nts either Sanctus or St. Kevin.

E. W. Jewett says John Huggins is making a stren us effort to get Bedouin to the post in the Cosmo politan Handicap. Bedouin became sore last fall after his victory in the Century Stakes and he was unable to fill the November engagements that had been made for him at Aqueduct. Last fall Mr. Jewett did not think it would be wise to train him spring. But the Meddler gelding has taken n kindly to work than his people expected. Bedouin as a general proposition, is not an early horse, but if Huggins succeeds in bringing him to the post fit in the Cosmopolitan, he will take some beating. He likes Belmont Park going. In the Jerome Handicap a year ago last fall he made a record for one mile and five-sixteenths.

A. Hamel has moved his string, which consists of the good filly Notasulga and the plater Wes, from Jamaica to Belmont Park. Notasulga is an eligible for the Gaiety Stakes, to be run at the Wexford is being slowly and carefully prepared by trainer Lynch for what he thinks will be a win-ning race and says it may happen any time now. Ed Ball easily galloped seven furlongs at Graves end in 1:33 yesterday and will do to tab for good race soon if not too ambitiously placed. Jacob ite, Cressina, Tartar Maid and Don Enrique are all ready for some sparkling races. Kiamesha is rapidly coming around to her best form and her trainer says she will be hard to beat when he gets the mare right on edge. The watch-holders who have been taking note of the morning trials of the steeplechasers, say Sandalwood, Jimmy Lane, Paul Jones, Delcanta and Bayonet, will soon be ready to go through the field in public.

MORE HORSES FOR TORONTO.

Lexington, Ky., May 15 .- The racing stables of Graves & Innes and Phil King were shipped from the Kentucky Association track to Toronto today.

North Dakota Man Says Farley Has Rogers Banished Horse in Training,

Daily Racing Form is in receipt of the following letter from a correspondent who resides in a town in North Dakota not far from the Canadian border and within a few hours ride of Winnipeg, Manitoba, the center of a big circuit of min running and trotting meetings that have been scheduled for the coming summer:

"Will you kindly send me the description of Garnish; his age and if he has been ruled off by any jockey club, and where and when I have information that one Farley has him now and will use him as a ringer up in this country." Garnish was ruled off the turf by the stewards of the Jockey Club at their meeting in New York, October 29, 1906, and has not been reinstated. He is a six-year-old bay horse, with a faint star and a few gray hairs in his face. He is branded 47, the brand being on the neck under the mane. Garnish was bred by James B. Haggin at Rancho del Paso in California, his sire being Rapalio and his dam Garniture. He was first raced as a two-year-old at Jamaica in October 1903 as the property of the Eagle Stable. As a three-year-old he was owned by M. L. Hayman and in 1905 he passed to R. L. Rogers and raced in the name of Mrs. R. L. Rogers until he was ruled off, winning his last race, which was at Jamaica, October 23, last.

With the horse, R. L. Rogers and John Wilson, who was an assistant trainer, were also ruled off. The action of the stewards of the Jockey Club was taken under the following clause in the rules of rac

"Any person who shall have administered a drug or stimulant internally or by hypodermic method prior to a race, or who shall have used appliances electrical or mechanical other than the ordinary whip and spur, shall be ruled off."

The inquiry into the doping of Garnish com-menced at Brighton Beach, July 31, 1906, the day of his memorable defeat by Red Friar. The official veterinary discovered evidence of drugs, diagnosing the case as chloral poisoning. The horse's mouth was badly burned. R. L. Rogers was questioned by the stewards and disclaimed any knowledge of the use of drugs. John Wilson was adjudged responsible and accordingly discharged.

But in October it was learned that Wilson was again in Rogers' employ and that he was making preparations to ship Garnish and other horses in the stable to Los Angeles. This caused the stewards of the Jockey Club to take up the case again. It is alleged that when Wilson was confronted with certain evidence that had been gathered by the agents of the Jockey Club since July, he vouchsafed the information that Garnish had been doped in all his races and furnished James R. Keene with the recipe that had been used.

Rogers in the meantime had started for Los An geles. He was intercepted at Chicago and wired to return to New York to answer the charge made by Wilson. That his answer was unavailing is evidenced by the action of the stewards on October 29, and their refusal since to reinstate him.

The Farley mentioned as now in possession of the horse may be E. E. Farley, who was ruled off turf by the Western Jockey Club as the result of the Sarah Black ringing case at Grosse Pointe track, Detroit, June 16, 1903. After he was ruled off Farley came to Chicago and spent much of the ey he had taken from the poolroms through the fraudulent transaction in barrassing the local race tracks. Later the Western Jockey Club failed in an effort to put him in the penitentiary, under the Michigan law against ringing. Since then Farley has spent much of his time in the northwest. He was at Winnipeg, Brandon, Grand Forks, Minot, Bottineau, Cando, and other towns in Manitoba and North Dakota last summer, and it is not improbable that he is there again.

INCREASE IN PURSES AT GRAVESEND.

New York, May 15 .- The Brooklyn Jockey Club's program book for the spring racing at Gravesend shows that there will be no race for a purse of less than $1,000, and in twenty-four of these overnight races the added money amounts to $1,200. Two will pay $1,500. Seventy-six over-night races are offered at Gravesend for the two meetings, with a total value of $81,000. The stakes, large and small, of course, are worth a great deal more than that sum. . With $81,000 to run for the small horse man will have better than an average chance to make both ends meet. The attendance at Gravesend this spring will be so heavy President Dwye will undoubtedly distribute more money during the autumn meeting, although the attendance in the fall is not generally as good as in the spring. Friends of the amiable boss of Gravesend and Aque duct do not, however, fear that he will bankrup himself. The Brighton management has already decided to raise purses at the Beach, and it is now up to the Westchester Association to drop into line.

SCULLY LOSES A GOOD FILLY.

New York, May 15 .- The Palestine Stable has had the misfortune to lose the bay filly Phoebe Snow by Peep o'Day—Regalia II. She had shown satisfactory trials for trainer Scully. She was a full sister to Josephine Louise Daly and a half-sister to Santa Barbara. Her dam is by Melton and was bred in Italy and was brought to this country by H. T. Oxnard in 1902. Mr. Scully paid $200 for Phoebe

DEBUTANTE TO ANCIENT.

KARR'S FILLY SCORES LUCKY VICTORY IN THE LOUISVILLE FEATURE.

Mollie Montrose Meets Her First Defeat-Heavy Track and Bad Weather-Esterioy's Good Race.

Louisville, Ky., May 15 .- Ancient, Colby Karr's Cesarion—Grandma II. filly, won the Debutante Stakes at Churchill Downs this afternoon, beating all of the supposed cracks of her sex and age here The race was at a half mile and was worth $1,715 to the winner. Her victory, though, was a fluky one, she being favored by the most racing luck and seemingly suited to a nicety by the heavy going. Woodlane, which finished second, was probably but showed lack of gameness by boring out when called on for an extra hard effort in the stretch. The disappointment of the race was the poor showing of Mollie Montrose, heretofore unbeaten, having won eight straight races at New Orleans In today's race she was prominent for a brief period only, then faltered badly and finished eight lengths back of the winner. Many find excuse for her poor showing on the score that the track was

Grande Dame was withdrawn and Geneva S. and Sallie Barry were added starters. The Holle entry. Mollie Montrose and Parisian Model, was the open-ing choice in the betting, but the activity on Woodlane caused her to be installed favorite at the close. Ancient received steady support, enough to cause most of the layers to quit losers on the race. Troxler was alert at the post and, getting away in a good position, dashed his mount into a commanding lead at once. For a brief period after rounding the stretch turn, Woodlane threatened to go by Ancient, but at the critical moment she flinched from the whip and began boring out allowing Ancient to draw away again and secure the verdict by a scant length. Under hard urging Black Mary closed up a big gap through the stretch in time to take third place.

Last night's hard rain followed by bleak weather caused a decrease in the attendance and played havoc with the course. Its bad state was responsible for numerous withdrawals, the handicap at seven furlongs, originally carded as the third race, suffered to the extent that it had to be declared off, and a selling race at three-quarters, run as the sixth, was substituted.

In the steeplechase over the long course, Esterjoy conceding much weight to his opponents, led throughand was a handy winner over Lights Out. That he equaled the record for the course, established by Presgrave in 1904, marked a good performance when it is considered that the course was soft and slippery. The race was also noteworthy for the fact that for the first time in the history racing in these parts an amateur rode in a race with professionals, Dr. Burr Ferguson piloting Horizontal. He was unseated when his mount blundered, after going over the ninth jump, but he was not

FALL MEETING FOR LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., May 15 .- Secretary W. R. Letcher, of the Kentucky Association, has turned over to the auditing committee of the board of directors his report of the spring meeting. The report shows a good profit for the meeting, but the exact amount will not be given out until the committee has gone over the report. The probabilities are now that a race meeting of about a week will be given here this fall, although the directors have not finally decided that question. The directors will probably build several new stables on the association grounds this summer to take the place of those burned last fall.

RESPESS' COSTLY CRIPPLES.

Cincinnati, O., May 15 .- J. B. Respess has hopes that he will get Woodlands, Bardolph and Copperfield to race again. These magnificent cripples are in his barn at Latonia and they get their work every day to a light sulky, Respess frequently driving them himself. These three horses cost Respess something like $15,000 and he has never got quite that much out of them. He bought Woodlands from Barney Schreiber for $5,000; got Bardolph from Gorman & Bauer and Copperfield from T. W. Moore.

PHOTOGRAPHER THE ONE TO BEAT.

Another Good Move by Beck's Candidate for the King's Plate-Toronto News.

Toronto, Ont., May 15.-Photographer, Beck's candidate for the King's Plate, will be a hard horse to beat if he runs up to the performances shown in his public trials of the past week. Last Thursday he was sent the full plate distance, covering the mile and a quarter in 2:14%, which was con sidered by the horsemen present to be an extra good performance and some had no hesitancy in speak-ing their belief that the colt had run his race ten days too soon. He came back on Saturday, how ever, and repeated the performance. Monday morn ing Photographer was again asked to turn the trick which he did in the remarkable time of 2:13, con-sidering his two previous trials within five days. The fractional time of the Monday morning run was quarter, 26; three-eighths, 40; half, 53; five-eights, 1:07; seven-eighths, 1:33; one mile, 1:46 and the mile and one-eighth in 1:59½. Jockey Kelly rode him and the colt probably carried fifteen pounds more than he will have up in the race Saturday. Owner Beck watched the colt make the trip and was more than pleased with the work.

The Seagram plate candidates have been taking lessons at the barrier as a part of their work and ought to be good actors at the post. Mr. Seagram, it is now said, will start only Haruko and Assemblyman.

John Dyment gave his good campaigner, Tongorder, a gallop around the track and the son of Order made the mile in 1:451 and it can be taken that he is now fit and ready.

Secretary Fraser opened the steeplechase field for schooling purposes today.

Jockey Dave Nicol will be on hand Saturday to ride one of the Seagram candidates, but no an-nouncement has been made as to who will ride Photographer. It is certain though that a good boy will be given the mount on the son of Phaeton Snap Shot.

Harry Giddings had his big two-year-old colt, Flying Arrow out on parade today. He is a brother to Wire In and War Whoop and stands fully sixteen hands high and is built in proportion. The colt has all kinds of speed, showing a quarter through the stretch in less than 24. Mr. Giddings has received several tempting offers for him, but of present mind is strongly inclined to keep him for next year's

Two more carloads of horses arrived yesterday from New York and Baltimore and when the Louisville horses now on the way arrive, the quarters at the track will be taxed to the limit. The arrivals yesterday were: Doc Kyle, Avaunteer, Mulvaney, Nogi, Charivari, Thomas Clyde, Tudor, Lawless, Camera, Javelin, Velex, Valcourt, Mary Morris, Lotus Eater, Preen, Transition, Patrician, Sea Mount, Canobia Lake, Jennie's Beau, Monkey Puzzle, Lord Boanerges and Belle of Jessamine.

AMERICAN FIGURES CAUSE TROUBLE.

Government of Austro-Hungary Tries to Tax Jockeys on Newspaper Statements.

During the month of January there was published in several daily papers in this country a list of the American jockeys who had made engagements to ride abroad this year and extrava sums were named as the salaries they would receive. This list fell into the hands of the incollectors for the dual government of Austria and Hungary and recently they made an effort to tax the American jockeys and trainers employed there on those outlandish figures. coming as a climate to the harrassing factics of these government agents during the previous three years, stirred up a muddle which Mr. Baltazzi, the head of the Austro-Hungary Jockey Club, is now trying to straighten out. It may be that the aid of the government of the United States will be asked before a final settlement is made.

Fred Cowman, who spent the years of 1904, '05 and '06 in the saddle in Austro-Hungary, but who is now employed by a New York dry goods firm, says Fred Taral was asked to pay 10,000 kronen, the equivalent of $2,000, as a tax on his alleged earnings last year. In telling of the methods used by the collectors to enforce payments, Cowman said that three years ago the officials of the tax bureau took possession of the stewards' room at the Vienna race course one day and proceeded to search the differ-ent jockeys and trainers as they made their appearance in the weighing inclosure, taking their money and valuables, and in return giving them a receipt as part payment for their arrears in their taxes, some of the native riders and trainers having never paid up their taxes for years.

But after two or three had been put through the mill, the tip went around and in a jiffy the jockeys and trainers turned over their money and valuables to their valets and friends—the valets becoming virtually walking safety deposit vaults. Finding ont they were beat at this game, they next secured duplicate keys and lay in wait for the trainers at their stable quarters.

Jim Dyer, who then trained for Herr Blascovites and Herr Lucenbacher, was corraled in this manner and held prisoner for over two hours, Mr. Balt-azzi coming to the rescue by promising to arrange matters. A few days afterward, at a meeting of the stewards and representatives of the government, the Jockey Club agreed to hold out five per cent. of the gross earnings of the jockeys and trainers, and has since done so, Mr. Zellinger, the clerk of the scales, acting on the part of the jockeys and trainers.

But from all accounts, at present there isn't a man in Austro-Hungary that knows just what tax he must and should pay. Every cent of money earned by a jockey or trainer is collected through the Jockey Club, so that it is an easy matter to tell just how much each one earns.

Winner—B. c, by Lamplighter—Irmingard (trained by W. A. Smith).

Went to nost at 5:08. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving: second and third the same. All Ablaze got away well and forced the pace in the early stages, saved ground when turning into the stretch and, standing a hard drive gamely, outstayed Dr. Wentker in the closing strides. The latter showed much speed and raced Red Thistle into subjection. Lansdown came from a long way back in the stretch and was going gamely at the end. Red Thistle ran in improved form and was prominent throughout. Demo was in close quarters and suffered from interference, but was going faster than the leaders at the end and would have won at a longer distance. Monere was crowded back at the half and ran fairly well, Sagapanak had a rough trip and was eased up through the stretch. The winner was entered for Overweights—Bed Thistle, 44 pounds: Ontional 2, Coldente in the color of the stretch.
